

- (5) The UWEBC will be under the supervision of the Consortium Director, Professor Dharmaraj Veeramani, or his successor.
- (6) The Donor understands that the University, in accepting these funds for the purpose and activities herein stated, intends that they shall be used for the promotion of scientific knowledge in the field of e-business and e-commerce. The results of UWEBC's activities shall be made public by the University, through publication or otherwise, in any manner that it may deem desirable, keeping in mind that the public interest or welfare shall be dominant. Unless otherwise required by law, the University will exercise reasonable effort to maintain in confidence and not include in UWEBC's reports or public seminars/conferences proprietary or trade-secret information disclosed or submitted to the University by the Donor which is designated in writing as confidential information at the time of disclosure, or if disclosed orally, is confirmed in writing as confidential within 15 days of disclosure. Confidential information does not include information which at the time of receipt:
- is generally available in the public domain or thereafter becomes available to the public through no act of the University; or
  - was independently known prior to receipt thereof or was discovered independently by an employee of the University who had no access to the information supplied by Donor under this Agreement; or
  - was made available to the University as a matter of lawful right by a third party.

The University retains the right to refuse to accept any such information, which is not considered to be essential to the completion of the research. The obligations of the University under this paragraph shall survive and continue for one (1) year after termination of this Agreement.
